Borough Authorizes Plot Condemnation for Span Approach

Will Take Legal Action for Land if Owner Refuses Offer

TOWNSHIP TO DO WORK

Condemnation proceedings will be invoked to obtain a pie-shaped piece of ground needed for approaches to the Rockland avenue bridge if the owner refuses Borough Council's offer for the plot.

Action was taken by Council Monday night, with William H. Fretz, president, presiding, when Henry A. Frye, borough solicitor, reported that Joseph Russell, Jr., owner of the ground along Rockland avenue, asked $2 per square foot for the 250 square feet needed. This, it was pointed out, would amount to about $86,000 per acre.

Cancellation of $130 in delinquent taxes on the Russell property at Rockland avenue and Grove Place will be offered in exchange for a deed of dedication or easement on the plot.

Council authorized the payment of $500 toward the necessary abutments and approaches to the Rockland Avenue Bridge which is to be widened for pedestrian traffic by the Pennsylvania Railroad.

According to Robert F. Wood, highway committee chairman, it was agreed at a meeting between borough and township officials last Friday night that this sum should be Narberth's share. The cost to be borne by Lower Merion is approximately $1230.

Under the agreement Lower Merion Township will do all the work necessary for the improvement and then bill the borough for its share.

Lucille Stoddart Display Next Week

Annual Production to be Outstanding for Elaborate Settings and Costuming

The Lucille Stoddart Dance Display will be presented by the Woman's Club of Bala-Cynwyd April 23 and 24 at the Lower Merion Junior High School, Ardmore.

Miss Stoddart's third annual production will include 176 specialty students in a revue which promises to far surpass any previous performance. Ideas for the ballet were acquired by the well-known danseuse in New York, London and Paris.

The elaborate ballet, "Kitchen on Parade," written and directed by Miss Stoddart, will be spectacular for its unusual stage settings and beautiful costumes, which are being made by Miss Stoddart's costume department in New York.

In producing the display this year Miss Stoddart is realizing her ambition to make the dancing school project one that would arouse the interest and support of the community.

Co-operating in building elaborate stage settings is the Philadelphia Electric Company.

A nine-foot icebox, with vegetables, meats and other supplies painted on the inside drop; a model sink and stoves, together with condiment and broom chests, will provide unusual settings from which the characters, representing ice cubes, lettuce leaves, soap bubbles, etc., will emerge.

The second act will be in an old-fashioned garden. Powerful sets of lights and unusual lighting effects are being arranged by the Electric Company to add to the effectiveness of the scenes.

The Woman's Club has taken a block of 1000 tickets which they will sell on a percentage basis. They will use the proceeds in philanthropic work.

The play will start promptly at 8 P. M. and will be over at 10. All seats will be reserved this year and Miss Stoddart requests that people arrive on time.

Tickets will be on sale at the Woman's Club, Levering Mill road and Bala avenue, Cynwyd, every day next week from 9 A. M. to 1 P. M.

The committee chairman from the club co-operating to make this affair a success are Mrs. Ruth M. Ivins, programs; Mrs. E. B. DeVilliss, ways and means; Mrs. C. A. Freihofer, tickets.

The accompanist for the entire display will be Eric Wilkinson.

Republican Leaders Attend Services for Charles Johnson

Pay Tribute to Former County G. O. P. Chief at Final Rites

PARTY HEAD 28 YEARS

Republican leaders and workers attended the final rites Wednesday afternoon for Charles A. Johnson, 83, veteran leader of the Republican party in Montgomery County.

Mr. Johnson died Saturday night in Montgomery Hospital, Norristown, following a heart attack. This fatal complication developed after more than two and one-half years of serious illness, following a paralytic stroke which he suffered in 1934 and necessitated his retirement from political life.

Mr. Johnson's political career started when he was little more than a boy. Born February 27, 1855, on a farm in Norriton Township, he worked there during his youth. He went to Norristown as a young man, engaged in the real estate and insurance business. His political career began as a tax collector and later he was made a mercantile appraiser and successively deputy sheriff and sheriff.

He took state office for the first time in 1900 when he was appointed resident clerk of the House of Representatives. During the eleven years he held that post, he directed the Speakers' Bureau of the Republican State Committee and later became treasurer of that committee.

Governor John K. Tener appointed him insurance commissioner in 1911 and he was retained by Governor

W.C.T.U. Awards Five Essay Contest Prizes

Honorable Mention is Given Other Narberth Pupils for Temperance Themes

Recently there has been a great deal of enthusiasm and interest displayed by the pupils of the Narberth Public School in a contest sponsored by the local unit of the W. C. T. U. Last Friday afternoon the contestants were rewarded.

Mrs. R. C. Kennedy, president of the Narberth Branch of the W. C. T. U., told the students something of the beginnings of the W. C. T. U. and paid tribute to Frances E. Willard, its founder. She thanked the pupils for their interest and the teachers for their co-operation in the preparation of the themes. Mrs. Kennedy told the boys and girls that, while the women of the community comprised the membership of the local branch, numbering seventy-five at the present time, they did not feel that they alone could help fight the evil of strong drink without the aid of the boys and girls of the community and expressed the hope that they would join forces with this organization.

The prizes of $2 each were presented to the following pupils:

Fourth grade, Selma Breslow; fifth grade, Barbara Woodrow; sixth grade, George Bailey; seventh grade, Katherine Uhle; eighth grade, Helen Wipf.

Honorable mention went to fourth grade, Billy Thompson; fifth grade, Dick Whiting; sixth grade, June Heller; seventh grade, Eleanor Haywood; eighth grade, Helen Doty.

The judges found it difficult to make selections of winners, due to the fact that so many fine essays were presented. They were Mrs. R. C. Kennedy, Miss Mary Hoover and Mrs. C. H. Woolmington.

The Parent-Teacher Association will hold their April meeting on Monday evening in the auditorium of the Narberth Public School at eight o'clock. Subject will be the Appreciation of the Fine Arts.

She was leading lady to Walter Hampden during his tour in London, played with the English Players in Paris and entertained Continental audiences at Monte Carlo.

She has specialized in Shakespeare and brings an entirely new conception of his characters. She delights in giving children an understanding of the famous playwright.

There will be music by the Parent-Teacher Chorus under the direction of Mrs. W. J. Drennan, who will sing Schubert's lovely Setti of Shakespeare "Who is Sylvia?"

Council Raises Boro Workers' Pay, Buys St. Signs and Coupe

New Scale for Laborers is 50c Per Hour; Drivers to Get 56c

SEVEN FIRMS OFFER CARS

A new wage scale for borough laborers and truck drivers was placed in effect by Borough Council at its April session.

The action followed a petition from the employees presented at the March meeting.

The increases will aggregate $3 weekly for the men. Based on a five-day, 40-hour week, the laborers will be paid 50 cents per hour and the drivers 56 cents with time and one-half for evening, Sunday and holiday overtime. Previously the laborers received weekly salaries of $22 and the drivers, $25, for a 50-hour week. The overtime is expected automatically to raise their wages.

Thomas Civitello, oldest employee and recognized foreman, was placed on a salary basis of $130 monthly with two weeks' vacation with pay.

Council accepted the bid of the Richards-Fisher Company of Overbrook for a 60 h. p. Ford Coupe for use of the borough highway department. The bid was $450.60 plus the trade-in value of a 1934 Ford Coupe. Six other agencies also submitted bids.

Purchase of a new set of borough streets signs from Lyle Signs, Inc., of Minneapolis, was authorized at a cost of $848.85. They will be obtained through the concern's local agent, A. W. Enders, of Upper Darby. Whether to spell it "Forest" or "Forrest" will remain a moot question. It's "Forrest Ave." on the new signs.

Tickets for Lecture on Sale at Library

Carl Sandburg to Speak at Narberth School Auditorium Next Friday

When Carl Sandburg talks he seems to have a bit of a stoop, his snow white hair gives the impression that it combs itself, his black tie gives him an appearance of being carefully attired; but, he is far from being a fastidious dresser and you will find him wearing his heavy shoes with their clumsy bulldog toe in any society. No matter how formal the occasion, Carl Sandburg appears in his usual attire. After he speaks one forgets his looks.

That is the description of the "beloved troubadour" who will speak at the Narberth School Auditorium next Friday evening under the auspices of the Narberth Library Association.

Plans for the lecture chiefly occupied the library trustees at their meeting Tuesday night. The admission will be 50 cents.

Tickets may be obtained only at the Narberth Library or from the members of the board: Mrs. C. W. Continued on Page Two

Legion Given O. K. on Arrangement of Tablet, Flagpole and Cannon

VETERANS TO AID WORK

Improvements both in the appearance and utility of Narberth's Community Center at Windsor and Wynnewood avenues, were announced this week.

The plans include the Memorial Grouping by the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, probably to be dedicated Memorial Day; a rededication of the uses of the Community Building by Narberth Borough Council who also authorized recreation improvements at the borough's building at 102 Conway avenue; and the announcement of staff and season schedule for the playfield by the Narberth Recreation Board.

A sketch of the Memorial Grouping drawn by Frank A. Schrepper from a working drawing and original survey made by Fred W. G. Peck, in charge of the Montgomery County Planning survey group, was shown to Borough Council Monday night by Frank J. Dwyer, commander of the Narberth Legion Post.

Council gave its approval to the specifications.

The plans call for a circular plot 45 feet in diameter, enclosed by a hedge. Within will be the stone tablet bearing the names of the local men who served in the World War, the flagpole, and then facing the West, the 7000-pound one-time controversial cannon.

Commander Dwyer said much of the work in connection with preparing the plot would be done by the Legionnaires. The cost of materials and for moving the memorial tablet and flagpole from their present locations to a point near the intersection

Republican Women Advised on Plans

Mrs. Hollingsworth Addresses Annual Meeting of Lower Merion-Narberth Council

"Positions of leadership in the Republican party should be gained on the merit system of party work and not on contributions to the campaign fund," Mrs. James E. Hollingsworth told members of the Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women Tuesday.

The speaker addressed the luncheon meeting of the Council at Erskine Hall, Haverford, when the young Republicans of the township were guests. "National committeemen and women should come up through the ranks," Mrs. Hollingsworth advocated in her advice as to how the next election can be won.

She advised her listeners to talk to people on the street and find out what they want.

"We have not the technique of presenting our position to labor," she said. "Get to know their viewpoint and let them know that we are sympathetic. Don't go out and squeeze labor's hand just before election."

The sampling of opinions of a large number of the party through questionnaires or forum meetings was advocated by the speaker.

Warning of the widespread growth of Communism, she declared that she feared liberals more than Communists who were labeled as Communists. "It is the advanced Socialists, such as Tugwell, Wallace and Ickes, who don't realize that they are Communists that we must fear."

At the Discussion Panel conducted before the luncheon Mrs. Herman Schwartz, legislative chairman, presided.

Stating that the trends today are very dangerous, Mrs. Schwartz urged the group to "work hard to maintain democratic standards of government or we will fall into a dictatorship."

Included in her review of current legislation were the Moomaw-Moran Bill, the Teacher's Tenure Bill, McGinnis Labor Bill, Chain Store Tax Bill, Child Labor Bill, Personal Property Tax Bill.

Mrs. Conyers Read discussed the Merit System Bill and the Council went on record as endorsing H. B. 1758. A letter will be sent to the Governor recommending that this bill

This Matter of Age

Death last Saturday removed the strongest political figure in Montgomery County's history.

Had his illness of the last few years, which caused his retirement as county Republican leader, not prevented it, it would have been of absorbing interest to have known the views of Charles Johnson in particular on the Supreme Court issue.

For here was a man who did not ascend to power until he was fifty and then, twenty-eight years later, climaxed his career when his organization turned in a 32,000 majority for Herbert Hoover in 1932 during the first Roosevelt landslide.

Had anyone suggested to "Charley" at 70 that he was too old to continue on the job, the one with such temerity probably would have been thrown bodily out of Johnson's office and by Johnson.

In fact he displayed his greatest knowledge, strength and wisdom between the ages of 70 and 78.

The conclusion to be drawn from the record of this one "old man" and also from the careers of "nine old men" is that one's prime of life and service depends to a large extent on the individual.

Brumbaugh. He resigned to help the late Senator Penrose in his fight with the Vane organization for control of the Republican party.

In 1921, Johnson returned to Capitol Hill as Deputy Auditor General, a post from which he resigned after six years to accept the appointment of Secretary of the Commonwealth under Governor Fisher.

He later became first Secretary of Revenue, an office created by the 1927 Legislature. Under Johnson, all collections of State taxes and fees were unified for the first time in the State's history. He resigned at the end of Governor Fisher's term.

For almost thirty years, Johnson was the recognized Republican leader of Montgomery County.

He was for many years a member of the Republican National Committee and a delegate to the Republican conventions which nominated Presidents Taft, Harding and Coolidge. When he retired in 1934, he was secretary of the Republican State Committee.

He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Stanley Drake, with whom he made his home, and a stepdaughter, Miss Idella Johnson, of Norristown.

Well-known Republicans from this section who attended the services were Fred C. Peters, Peter C. Hess, Dr. F. P. K. Barker, O. E. Kline, George Nellings, Elmer Baltz, Albert Lee, Storm V. Patterson, Walter Lowmes, Thomas Blake, Lieutenant Walter F. Brown, Sergeant Clarence Robb, Sergeant Frank J. Pollock.

In 1914 Carl Sandburg was awarded the Levinson Prize by the magazine Poetry for the poem "Chicago." Two years later he published his first volume, "Chicago Poems."

In 1919 and 1921 Mr. Sandberg shared half the award of the Poetry Society of America. In 1923 he was given the honorary degree of Doctor of Literature by Lombard College, and in 1928 he was Phi Beta Kappa poet at Harvard University.

In 1926 Mr. Sandburg completed his first biographical work, "Abraham Lincoln—The Prairie Years," which is the first of a three-volume comprehensive study of Lincoln.

In the Mailbag

Ah, Youth!

The critic of my article captioned "An Ingrate Speaks" is, I believe, a seventeen year old youth.

I admire the spirit of junior even though his ideas are all wrong because I, too, was a radical at seventeen.

(If inflation, whose sponsors are even now getting afraid of, is a lasting improvement in our economies then I'll admit I'm talking through my hat.)

His slur on the fairness of Our Town was a bit crude, however.

With the advancement of age and (I hope) wisdom he may turn out to be a useful citizen and not poison the community like, he says, the poor but well meaning writer does.

He has my best wishes at least.
(Really) Cordially yours,

Hearing on Sign Application
Narberth's Board of Adjustment took under advisement the question of granting permission for the erection of a sign approximately 4 by 10 feet in front of the Wynnewood Inn, 1236 Montgomery avenue, after a public hearing on the matter Wednesday night.

Speaking in favor of the sign were two officials of the Bryn Mawr Trust Company, trustees of the property, and Max Schoenberger, proprietor of the inn.

Objecting to the size of the sign in a residential neighborhood were several residents of the vicinity, with George S. Trimble and George M. Harding as spokesmen.

Schoenberger assured the board that the Wynnewood Inn would be run only as a high-class restaurant, that no dancing or loud music would be permitted.

After dropping games to Episcopal, Haverford School and Spring City High School, Lower Merion turned on the heavy artillery Tuesday afternoon in her initial start in Suburban warfare. A combination of good hitting by Hentosh, Severs, Wilson and Ryder, plus fine pitching by Ryder and a few misuses by the Upper Darby team, enabled Coach Fetter's squad to return with 12-to-4 victory.

While baseball does not share the interest that track and field sports enjoy along the Main Line, still it is news when Lower Merion defeats an Upper Darby baseball nine. The fact that the game was played on enemy soil makes the fact more newsworthy.

Baseball is such an uncertain game as played by high school boys, so I do not entertain too much hope that Tuesday's exhibition will be repeated too often this season. Lower Merion is not addicted to the habit of turning out winning diamond performers and it is too much to expect that they will be different this year.

Ryder's work should be commended. He struck out about ten of the opposition in seven innings and held the usually hard-hitting Upper Darby combination to four hits. This is fine twirling and if some of his mates can equal his league debut the team may do some fine things.

The senior high track team opens up this week, meeting Media at home on Wednesday and traveling to Norristown on Saturday. The results of the meet tomorrow at Roosevelt Field will give a fairly accurate picture of what may be expected from the squad this year.

Lower Merion Junior High School furnished sport with two champions the past week. One of these boys turned in a world's record, while the other won a Philadelphia championship.

Bill Houston, Cynwyd, won a world's championship with his model airplane at Convention Hall, Atlantic City. Bill flew his model for 7 minutes 25 seconds to top the former record of 7 minutes 19 seconds.

Earl Fox, Henley road, Ardmore, won the Greater Philadelphia junior drumming contest. Earl gave a demonstration of the numbers which he played to win the contest at assembly Tuesday morning, and the decision of the boys and girls was, "How could he have lost?"

The Junior High opens the spring season of sports with a track meet today on Pennypacker Field against the high school sophomores. The baseball team plays Haverford Prep on home grounds next Wednesday.

Baseball at Wheaton College Keeps Youth From Vacation

S. Parker Woolmington, of 23 Narbrook Park, will not be able to spend his spring vacation period at home this year, because he has been selected to play first base on the varsity baseball team of Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois, where he is a sophomore. Three games will be played by the Wheaton team during the spring vacation.

Last year Woolmington was a member of the Wheaton football squad and this year he won his letter on the soccer team.

He is also Sergeant-at-arms of the Celts Literary Society of the college. In 1934 and 1935 he was a member of the Lower Merion baseball team and was also a member of the soccer team of L. M. for three years. He played on the Narberth Boys' Club basketball team before leaving for Wheaton.

The club would be glad to have as their guests any one interested at the proposed meeting.

In order to get an idea about how many persons may wish to take advantage of this opportunity, a telephone call to Fred Moyer, chairman of the Committee on Membership, would be appreciated. Telephone Narberth 40-47-W.

There will be a short informal game of duplicate contract after the talk for those wishing to take part.
